DALLAS SERVICE FORUM AWARDS $90,000.00 IN GRANTS TO THEIR NON-PROFIT AGENCY PARTNERS

Dallas Service Forum recently announced grants of $90,000.00 to the non-profit agencies they support. The agencies are sharing the $90,000, with grants ranging from $10,000 to $20,000. The agencies will use the funds on a wide range of program costs and operational needs, which were submitted to DSF for consideration.

Agencies receiving the funds include Dallas Children's Advocacy Center, Ebby House, The Family Place, Hope's Door New Beginning Center, Juliette Fowler Communities, The Family Place and Ronald McDonald House of Dallas.

In announcing the grants, DSF President Marla Nunally said, "As DSF celebrates 45 years of service to the community with our upcoming March 28 "Royal Affair" fund raising luncheon, it is our great pleasure to award these funds to our agency partners who are dedicated to improving the lives of others by delivering vital services to those in need. This financial support, in addition to the hundreds of volunteer hours provide by DSF, underscores the DSF mission of providing service and financial support to children, families and the elderly throughout the greater Dallas community. We invite the community to join us at our fund-raising luncheon, which enables DSF to continue to support our mission."

The March 28 "Royal Affair" luncheon at Northwood Club will feature guest speaker Celebrity Chef Darren McGrady, former personal chef to the British royal family, with a menu prepared by Northwood Club. Chef McGrady was the former chef to Queen Elizabeth for eleven years and Princess Diana, William, and Harry for four years. Chef McGrady will share his personal remembrances of service to the British royal family. WFAA Dallas news anchor Kara Sewell will emcee the luncheon.

The event will begin at 10:30 AM and will include a reception, raffle, silent auction, and seated luncheon. Tickets for the luncheon are $150.00 and are available on the DSF website at www.dallasserviceforum.org. All proceeds from the event benefit the non-profit agencies served by Dallas Service Forum.
