TICKETS STILL AVAILABLE FOR DALLAS SERVICE FORUM “A LIVING LEGACY OF SERVICE AND GIVING” LUNCHEON AND AUCTION

With less than a month away, tickets are still available for Dallas Service Forum “A Living Legacy of Service and Giving” Luncheon and Auction on April 23 at Northwood Club.

“While tickets are selling briskly, we continue to invite the community to join us as we celebrate forty-six years of service to the greater Dallas community,” said luncheon chair Marla Nunally. “Our annual fund-raising event allows DSF to continue our support for our Agency Partners who work so diligently to provide services to those in need, and allows DSF to meet our mission of providing service and financial support to children, families, and the elderly throughout the greater Dallas area.”

In 2022-2023, DSF awarded $90,000.00 in grants and other funding to Agency Partners, provided over 8000 hours of volunteer service, and touched the lives of over 517,000 youth, families, and the elderly.

The event includes a reception, raffle, wine pull, silent auction and seated luncheon. Featured speaker is Judy Gaman, award winning author, CEO of Executive Medicine of Texas, and radio show host, and will include a book signing of her book “Love, Life, and Lucille: Lessons Learned from a Centenarian.” “At the heart of DSF is servant leadership. DSF is filled with servant heart leaders who continue to make a difference and I’m honored to be their keynote speaker as we celebrate “A Living Legacy of Service and Giving,” said Gaman.

Agencies supported by Dallas Service Forum are Dallas Children’s Advocacy Center, Ebby House, The Family Place, Hope’s Door New Beginning Center, Juliette Fowler Communities, Network of Community Ministries and Ronald McDonald House of Dallas.

Tickets for the luncheon are $200.00 and sponsorships are available beginning at $500.00. To purchase luncheon and raffle tickets and for more information please go to www.dallasserviceforum.org.
